

WEAVING WORKSHOPS

With Jacquetta Nisbet

Five-day sessions in Andean and Navajo weaving.

NAVAJO RUG

July 25 - 29, 2003. 10 a.m. - 4 p.m.

This workshop shows you how to warp and weave a small rug on your own upright frame loom. Instruction sheet for making a simple, inexpensive frame loom and obtaining supplies will be sent upon registration. Some supplies and tools will be available. (class limit 6)

ANDEAN BACKSTRAP

August 1- 5, 2003. 10 a.m. - 4 p.m.

You will discover how to warp and weave several beautiful Andean patterns on a simple backstrap loom which you will also learn to make. This rich weaving tradition goes back for thousands of years. The bugs are out of it and the irresistible interest and fun remain alive and well! (class limit

Fee for one five-day workshop is $250. Registration deposit of $50 per workshop will reserve your place. Balance is due on first day of class.

Please mail to Jacquetta Nisbet, P.O. Box 608, Point Arena, CA 95468

For more info. call (707)882-3771 or email nisbet@mcn.org

-----Cut here -----REGISTRATION-----Cut here -----

NAME.

ADDRESS.

.....ZIP

.

PHONE. EMAIL.

() $50 registration enclosed

Workshop date.